

Queenstown and District Historical Society

presents

Southern Adventures Historical Films

from Nga Taonga Sound & Vision Archive

Sunday 10 September, 2pm at St Margaret's Church Hall,
Ross St, Frankton

Admission $10

All welcome

Films of activities mainly in the South Island from 1910 onwards.
Compiled for the Glenorchy Museum Heritage Group in August 2016.

Duration: about one hour.

Clips come from amateur films, newsreels, documentaries and advertising.

Local items include Queenstown Bay and the TSS Earnslaw in about 1914; Skippers Road, the Bowls Club, and filming from Ben Lomond in 1925-6; films by tramper and climber Scott Gilkison in the 1940s and 50s; and 'A Wet Day in Paradise' documentary in 1994 including Rosie Grant.

1910

1938

Images from the Stills Collection at

