

SATURDAY
24 SEPTEMBER
10AM - 9PM

A FUN FILLED DAY AT THE HEAD OF THE LAKE

Come join us to taste and learn from our region's most exciting "Hunters and Gatherers."

10:00am - "Fresh and Yummy" veg stalls open - fresh and spray-free from the North Island *Mrs Woolly's hot-off-the-grill BBQ Breakfast Buns served

An afternoon of inspiring workshops:

1:00pm - Beer-Making from Whole Grains

2:00pm - Grow Your Own Microgreens

3:00pm - Fermented Foods, featuring Shirley Brickell of Real Food Now

4:30pm - The Hunter, the Chef and the Winemaker
* Matt Hood, a local Glenorchy fishing guide, on the best places to find fish in the area

* Darren Lovell of Fishbone for a workshop on three delicious ways to prepare trout

* Grant Taylor from Valli Vineyards pouring his new releases well-suited to local fish and game

5:30pm - Cash bar opens

5:45pm - Fresh fish and game dinner served ($35 including dinner + movie: pre-booking required)

6:30pm - The inimitable Fleur Sullivan, founder of award-winning restaurant Oliver's and now owner of internationally-recognized Fleurs Place, will be on hand to share her bounty of adventures of foraging and preparing fresh local foods over three decades.

7:00pm - Filmmaker James Reardon introduces Hallowed Isles, a deeply-felt, beautifully-filmed exploration of the Chatham Islands and the unique lifestyles, life and ecosystems that make their way in this rugged outpost 800km offshore.

Pre-book your dinner and movie tickets now at Eventfinda.co.nz

Given the special nature of the fish and game dinner being planned, please be sure to pre-book for the dinner and movie!

Mrs Woolly's
GENERAL STORE
GLENORCHY, NZ

MrsWoollysGeneralStore.co.nz
64 Oban Street, Glenorchy, NZ