

DISCOVER DOTERRA

ESSENTIAL OILS INTRO

Enjoy a fun evening out to learn the basics of what a quality, pure essential oil is, how to use oils aromatically and topically and how to integrate them into your home and lifestyle.

If you are looking for natural options to support your family's wellbeing, and you would like to learn how to make personal blends of emotionally or physically supportive oils that are perfect for you, you will love this event.

The introduction of Doterra pure oils and products into our household has been game changing and I look forward to sharing this with you. This class will be limited to 8 people.. Please email Paula to reserve your spot!
