A guide to events in the
Queenstown Lakes District

‘ARROWTOWN CEMETERY: A WALK INTO HISTORY’ BOOK TOUR

Sunday 31 October, 2.00pm – 3.00pm
The “old area” of Arrowtown Cemetery

To highlight the recently published Lakes District Museum-funded book ‘Arrowtown Cemetery: A Walk Into History’, book co-author Pauline Lawrence and Queenstown and District Historical Society President Marion Borrell will be at the Arrowtown Cemetery from 2.00pm to 3.00pm to share highlights and stories from the pocket-sized guide.

CEMETERIES KŌRERO

Tuesday 2 November, 6.00pm – 7.00pm
Wānaka Community Hub, Sidey Auditorium

Have you ever wondered what goes on “behind the scenes” at our district’s cemeteries? Do you want to know more about upcoming cemetery projects and planning? Or perhaps you’d like a bit of information to help prepare for your own end-of-life care? Drop in for a chat with our QLDC Cemeteries Administrator Tarsy Koentges.

AN INTRODUCTION TO NATURAL BURIALS

Wednesday 3 November, 6.00pm – 7.30pm
Camp Glenorchy Eco Retreat

Have you ever heard of natural burials? What exactly is a natural burial? Please join us at Camp Glenorchy for ‘An Introduction to Natural Burials’ with Claire Turnham MBE, an experienced home funeral practitioner and natural death care educator who is Director of the newly formed Australian Home Funeral Alliance and the Coordinator for Aotearoa Independent Death Voices Alliance.
