HOW	Register via Catalyst's HUMANITIX PAGE Koha online or at the door

How can you tell who will – or won't – keep corporate secrets? Less than 20% of cybersecurity breach attempts are internal – but they compromise 10 times more information.

And how does a religion's physical environment affect religious rituals, beliefs and feelings in different places? Is part of religious belief an accident of history and geography?

Come along to hear from two University of Otago psychology PhD students about their research, so new it's not even published yet.
