

Glenorchy Task Force Meeting Minutes

Tuesday 15th September 2015, Glenorchy School, 7pm

1. Minutes of last meeting – AG to circulate
2. Attendees: Brent Hyde, Mark Hasselman, Robert Bakhuis, Tussock, Allie McHugo, Kate Scott, John Glover, Anita Golden (Shaping our Future)
3. Apologies: Fiona McQueen, Luke Hasselman, Anne Percy
4. Vision – ‘

‘ A unique, vibrant community that is strongly influenced by its rural environment, providing a notable amount of its own resources (self-sufficiency), and actively protecting and enhancing its natural environment.

A community that fosters and embraces individuality and innovation, encourages resilience, promotes community vitality and collaboration. The Glenorchy community has a collective strong voice that advocates for positive change.

- a. Individuality, community vitality, innovative, independent,
5. Insert previous vision from community plan – elements of this vision are still relevant to today.
 - a. A vibrant community where lifestyle and freedom; are highly valued together with the peaceful, unspoilt rural environment and the dynamic interaction fo the spectacular landscape, heritage and wilderness.’
 - b. Community – The people of Glenorchy see and value their community as being safe, caring, self reliant, works together, welcoming to visitors, having residents who respect the environment.
 - c. The community values and enhances the wilderness at its doorstep, peacefulness, rural atmosphere, magnificent landscape, the history
6. Discussed managing growth and directing tourism growth or development.
7. General Business – Louise Vicente will be covering for Anita while she is on maternity leave. She is familiar with GY having worked on the website when with Feast Creative.
8. Next meeting Tuesday 6th October 7pm Glenorchy School
9. All review outline document, vision statement, and Tussocks Sustainability framework prior and put their comments in Google Docs.